

SpringBoard Member

July 2018 – Present

Melanie Blanco is a global communications professional and specializes in developing integrated communications strategies that align with organizational goals and culture. She is currently Director, Strategic Communications at FTI Consulting, a global business advisory firm. In her free time, you can find Melanie planning her next overseas trip, exercising, or running around Brooklyn.