Sharon Gandolfo is a Community Development Manager for the American Cancer Society's Northeast Region. She's responsible for the fundraising and event management of the Making Strides Against Breast Cancer Walk in Central Park – one of the largest events on the East Coast drawing over 50,000 participants annually. Prior to joining the American Cancer Society, Sharon managed the Corporate Membership program at PBS member station, WNET New York Public Media. She currently lives in New Jersey and is passionate about fundraising, the art and culture scene in New York, and traveling.
